¹ Countries designed with one asterisk (*) are not official branch offices but countries where projects were performed by WAMY. These projects were often overseen by the regional Saudi offices or branch offices.

² Argentina is not a branch office but falls under the purview of WAMY South America, located in Brazil. Therefore, it has limited documentation.

³ The Belgium office was scheduled to open in 2002, but it did not. Instead, activities in Belgium were carried out through the WAMY Western Europe representative in Germany.

⁴ There was no Chechnya branch office. Work in Chechnya was completed through the WAMY Central Asia and Russian Federation Office from 1992 – 1994 and 1996-2002. The office was in Russia starting in 1997 and after May 1999, this office was based in Kyrgyzstan. Prior to this, projects in Chechnya were operated through the Saudi regional offices (Riyadh, Jeddah/Mecca, and Abha/Southern Province).

⁵ There was no Czech Republic branch office. All work done in Czech Republic was completed by WAMY Office of Western Europe.

⁶ There was no office in Germany but rather a representative of WAMY who organized projects from Germany.

⁷ There was no branch office in Greece and very limited activities done in Greece through the WAMY Office of Eastern Europe.

⁸ There was no Hong Kong or China office. However, funds were sent to China for activities through WAMY regional office in Medina.
